CELESTIAL SOUNDINGS

Arts at Grace is pleased to welcome back Diana Elliott in her second performance on our Concert Series. Last year, she dazzled our audience with her stunning playing, and we look forward to her return. An active harpist in the greater Philadelphia area and along the east coast, Ms. Elliott maintains a diverse performance schedule including orchestral and chamber music performances as well as solo recitals. Ms. Elliott made her debut as Soloist with the Richmond Symphony Orchestra at the age of sixteen. Ms. Elliott is a graduate of the Temple University's Boyer College of Music with a Master's degree in Harp Performance.

A FESTIVAL OF NINE LESSONS AND CAROLS A CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

Join the Grace Choir and Youth Choirs in singing familiar carols in the tradition of King's College Cambridge. Kim Lawton of National Public Radio says of the festival, "It's one of the best loved events during the Christmas Season. The Festival of Lessons and Carols retells the Christmas story, and for many it's a moving experience."

Join us in celebrating the joy of Christmas with your friends and neighbors. The Festival is especially well suited to families with children as well as adults and is an exciting experience for all.

HEAVENLY MUSIC FOR STRINGS

Arts at Grace is pleased to welcome the Elysian Camerata with guest cellist Deborah Davis to our Concert Series. Now in its seventh year, Elysian Camerata has established itself as a cornerstone of the Philadelphia chamber music community. Their audiences have joined them on a journey of musical discovery that has taken them to countless times and places in music history. The Elysians seek to infuse every performance with the intense dedication and passion they feel for the music they play. Their commitment to connecting with their audiences has earned them a reputation for communicating a subtle understanding of the music.

In a program to culminate in Schubert's epic Cello Quintet, the Elysian Camerata is one event not to miss.

CELTIC BEGINNINGS FAMILY FUN

The King's Strings have been called "The von Trapp family with instruments" and that seems to be the best way to describe them. In this Celtic event, the King's Strings will begin with fiddling, and explore folk music, Broadway and more.

The King's Strings have played all over their home state of Pennsylvania, west to Ohio, east to New York City and south to Florida. In 2008 and 2010 they were thrilled to entertain the guests of Pennsylvania's Governor Ed Rendell at his annual Holiday Open House.

This event will feature complimentary light fare, green beer, face painting and more!
